

Required 2010 Summer Reading

Dear Parents and Friends of OPS,

On behalf of the English Department, faculty, and administration, I would like to thank you for your support of our summer reading program these past few years. Our students have benefited greatly from it, and therefore I am confident you will continue to support our newly revised program.

Yes, we have increased our requirements to two books for grades six through ten. Eleventh grade honors students will now read two books while AP students will read three. These increases are by no means excessive or unusual—most independent schools (as well as many public ones) have instituted similar summer reading requirements. Furthermore, given the increased emphasis of reading and writing skills on the new SAT, along with declining test scores across the nation in those areas, it makes sense to afford our children as many reading opportunities as possible. Of course, the experience that reading acclaimed literature can provide the mind and spirit is at least as important as standardized test scores.

In some courses (particularly Honors and AP), some writing, journal keeping, or other activity may accompany the reading in order to meet those above-stated goals. Be certain to check with the grade level teacher if you have any questions about such assignments. As in the past, students should expect a test (or similar evaluation) on their summer reading during the first week of school in August.

I again invite you to read along with your children and share your insights, thoughts, and memories with them. When young people see they are members of a reading community, and that reading is crucial to linking one to our culture and history, they are more likely to become competent, interested readers. Encourage your children by setting a good reading example.

Thank you again for your dedication to OPS.

Sincerely,
Mark C. Van Gunten, Ph.D.

(Revised 5/7/10)

Study questions for summer reading for 10th grade Honors English and AP English 12 are available on the school's website, www.orangeburgprep.com. (These are mandatory.) All books listed below will be available to purchase in the Business Office.*

Course	Author/Title of Book
English 6—2 requirements	• Peck, A Long Way From Chicago	• Peck, A Year Down Yonder
English 7—2 requirements	• Smith, Peak	• Hinton, The Outsiders
English 8—2 requirements	• Riordan, The Lightning Thief	• Riordan, Sea of Monsters
Literature & Composition (9th) 2 requirements	• Hemingway, The Old Man and the Sea	• Albom, Tuesdays With Morrie
Honors Literature & Composition (9th) 2 requirements	• Hemingway, The Old Man and the Sea	• Knowles, A Separate Peace
American Literature (10th) 2 requirements	• Lee, To Kill A Mockingbird	• Wharton, Ethan Frome
Honors American Literature (10th) 2 requirements	• Malamud, The Natural	• Krakauer, Into the Wild
British Literature (11th) 2 requirements	• Defoe, Robinson Crusoe	• Shaw, Pygmalion
Honors British Literature (11th) 2 requirements	• White, The Once and Future King	• Woolf, Mrs. Dalloway
World Literature (12th) 1 requirement	• Hosseini, The Kite Runner
AP English (12th) 3 requirements	• Haddon, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time • Hemingway, A Farewell to Arms	• Fitzgerald, Tender is the Night