

Summer Reading – American Literature, English II

Books for summer reading: To Kill a Mockingbird

Ethan Frome

There is a packet of work related to these two books in the office for each of you. These books may also be purchased in the business office at OP if you wish. Please pick up a work packet before leaving school on Wednesday or come by the office as soon as possible to get one. Directions for the work and dates due are included in the packet. These assignments are required and will be graded.

Summer Reading – British Literature, English III

Books for summer reading: Robinson Crusoe

Pygmalion

There is a packet of work related to Robinson Crusoe for each of you in the office. Copies of these books may be purchased in the business office at OP. Please pick up a work packet before leaving school on Wednesday or come by the office as soon as possible to get one. Directions for the work and dates due are included in the packet. The assignments are required and will be graded.

Summer Reading – Honors British Literature, Honors III

Books for summer reading: The Once and Future King

A Passage to India

Mrs. Dalloway

There is a packet of work related to these selections in the office for each of you. Copies of these books may be purchased in the business office at OP. Please pick up a work packet before leaving school on Wednesday or come by the office as soon as possible to get one. Directions for the work and dates due are included in the packet. These assignments are required and will be graded.